

LISTENING AND SPEAKING

1. Listen to the conversation. Circle the sentences that you hear. You can read this dialogue in the Conversation sections of your book.

It's time to go to bed.

I want cereal.

Can you tell me a story?

Do you want a story about dogs?

The story is called, "The Tortoise and the Hare."

I have to put my tooth under the pillow.

2. After listening to the conversation, number the sentences in the right order.

I have to put my tooth under the pillow.

It's time to go to bed.

Can you tell me a story?

The story is called "The Tortoise and the Hare."

I want an apple.

That was a good lesson.

Listen

Listen and repeat. Point at the words as you hear them.

bedroom

tooth

tell

ducks

story

choose

I am going to wait for you in your bedroom.

I have to put my tooth under the pillow.

Can you tell me a story?

The story is about ducks.

What story do you want?

Can you choose another story?