The UN High Commissioner for Refugees (UNHCR) was established on 14 december, 1950. It was set up to protect refugees throughout World and to help in resolution of refugee problems. It has its headquarters in geneva, switzerland, but the Organisation has a staff of around 6,540 in 116 countries. Its main aim is to safeguard rights and well-being of refugees. Large proportion of the 20.8 million people which UNHCR helps are in third world, especially in countries in africa and asia. More than a quarter of the world's refugees, however, are in europe and united states, many of them seeking asylum.
