

1 Complete the dialogue with words from the box.

need to Cool silly don't present riding Really

Charlie Wow, Holly – what are you (1) riding ?

Holly It's my new unicycle. It was a (2) _____ for my birthday.

Charlie (3) _____ ?

Holly Yes. I've wanted one for ages.

Charlie (4) _____ ! Do you (5) _____ to wear a helmet with it?

Holly I don't think so. I (6) _____ ride it on the road.

Charlie I know, but if you fall, you could hurt your head.

Holly But I look (7) _____ in a helmet.

Charlie You don't look silly. You need (8) _____ be safe!

2 007 Listen and say the words.

television station profession

Phonics tip

The -ion syllable isn't stressed, so it has a short vowel sound. Most words ending in -sion have the same sound as in television. Most words ending in -tion or -ssion have the sh sound.

3 Complete the sentences with words from the box.

instructions station explosion emission television pollution revision invitation

Word-watch

question is pronounced with a ch sound

- I went to the station to catch the nine o'clock train.
- Cars in the future will be _____-free.
- Jack watched _____ after he finished his homework.
- If you want to use that machine, please read the _____ carefully.
- I need to do some _____ before the Science exam next week.
- Julie gave me an _____ to her birthday party on Saturday.
- If you mix those powders together, you'll cause an _____.
- There's a lot of _____ in big cities.

4 008 Listen, check and say the sentences.

24 Functional language dialogue; phonics focus: -sion and -tion