

- (1)
- |                    |       |   |
|--------------------|-------|---|
| 1. a majority      |       |   |
| 2. a device        | _____ | something written or spoken that provides information |
| 3. an individual   | _____ | a piece of equipment that does a particular job       |
| 4. an ocean        | _____ | a very large area of sea                              |
| 5. an announcement |       |   |
| 6. a hero          |       |   |
- (2)
- |                 |       |  |
|-----------------|-------|--|
| 1. an argument  | _____ | something given to people who are ill to make them better              |
| 2. a profession | _____ | a discussion in which two or more people don't agree with each other   |
| 3. medicine     |       |  |
| 4. a material   |       |  |
| 5. a survey     | _____ | a method of finding out people's opinions, usually by asking questions |
| 6. a hole       |       |  |
- (3)
- |                |       |                                       |
|----------------|-------|---------------------------------------|
| 1. traditional |       |                                       |
| 2. necessary   | _____ | continuing for a short time           |
| 3. weak        | _____ | complete                              |
| 4. brief       | _____ | needed to achieve a particular result |
| 5. entire      |       |                                       |
| 6. recent      |       |                                       |
- (4)
- |                 |       |  |
|-----------------|-------|--|
| 1. definitely   |       |  |
| 2. typically    | _____ | more and more                            |
| 3. eventually   | _____ | without any doubt                        |
| 4. increasingly | _____ | in the end, especially after a long time |
| 5. forever      |       |  |
| 6. fortunately  |       |  |
- (5)
- |                 |       |  |
|-----------------|-------|--|
| 1. to persuade  | _____ | to say that someone is responsible for doing something wrong |
| 2. to avoid     |       |  |
| 3. to blame     | _____ | to make people believe something by giving them good reasons |
| 4. to exist     |       |  |
| 5. to intend    | _____ | to know someone or something because you've seen them before |
| 6. to recognize |       |  |