

1. Finding the right health insurance plan as a foreigner can be challenging. It's important to understand key terms and considerations to make an informed decision.
2. means being admitted to a hospital for medical care: hospital stays and medical treatments.
3. includes medical services outside the hospital, such as doctor visits, tests, and medications.
4. covers significant healthcare expenses like surgeries and specialist consultations.
5. covers routine services like doctor visits and preventive care.
6. are medicines with specific trademarks, while are similar but less expensive versions.
7. means the insurance plan pays for prescribed medications. Also, check if the plan covers for regular .
8. If you might face or require , consider insurance plans that cover , surgeries, and rehabilitation.
9. Some plans include coverage for vision-related services like eye exams, glasses, and contact lenses. If you wear glasses or need eye check-ups, check if the plan offers .