Vocabulary

Task 1

Choose the correct answer.

Revising for exams is stressful. There's pressure on you to do well and (26) good grades. So, you sit (27) at your desk and spend hours preparing, often until quite late. But that's not the best way to study. In fact, it's probably the worst! You need to take regular breaks. That means getting (28) from your desk and doing something else. You could go outside and walk (29) your garden or do some light exercise. Ten minutes later, you'll be ready to settle (30) and start revising again. (31) it a try and you'll see that your ability to think clearly and remember important information will improve. So what are you waiting for? Jump (32) and move (33) !
