Yesterday I went to a modern art exhibition. The most (1) [cheapest] [expensive] [best] painting cost nearly one million euros, but it wasn't the best painting. My favourite painting was the (2) [cheaper] [cheapest] [cheap] painting in the gallery! It was modern but it wasn't as weird (3) [as] [than] [like] the others. The artist doesn't sell many paintings, so she isn't the most (4) [talented] [successful] [good] painter, but I would like to have this painting on the wall in my bedroom. I think she's a very (5) [exciting] [shy] [boring] artist and I would love to be as creative as she is!
