Pablo Picasso, the Painter

Pablo Picasso

Pablo Picasso was one of the greatest artists of the 20th century. He was born in Spain in 1881 and died in France in 1973. Picasso's painting style changed several times during his life. He liked to try new things. Sometimes he painted things that looked flat and other times things that were round. When he was 19 he went to Paris, France.

At the beginning, he didn't have any money. He was sad and he used a lot of blue in his paintings. Then, he met a girl. They fell in love and the colors in Picasso's paintings changed. That was the beginning of the Rose Period. In this period, his colors were happier, and he painted circus people. Then came the Cubism style. A man in one of Picasso's paintings looks like he is broken into small cubes.
