LESSON 3: WATER HABITATS

1. WATER IN OUR EARTH

Most of Earth is covered with (1)_____. There are ponds, lakes, rivers, and oceans that are home to numerous plants and animals.

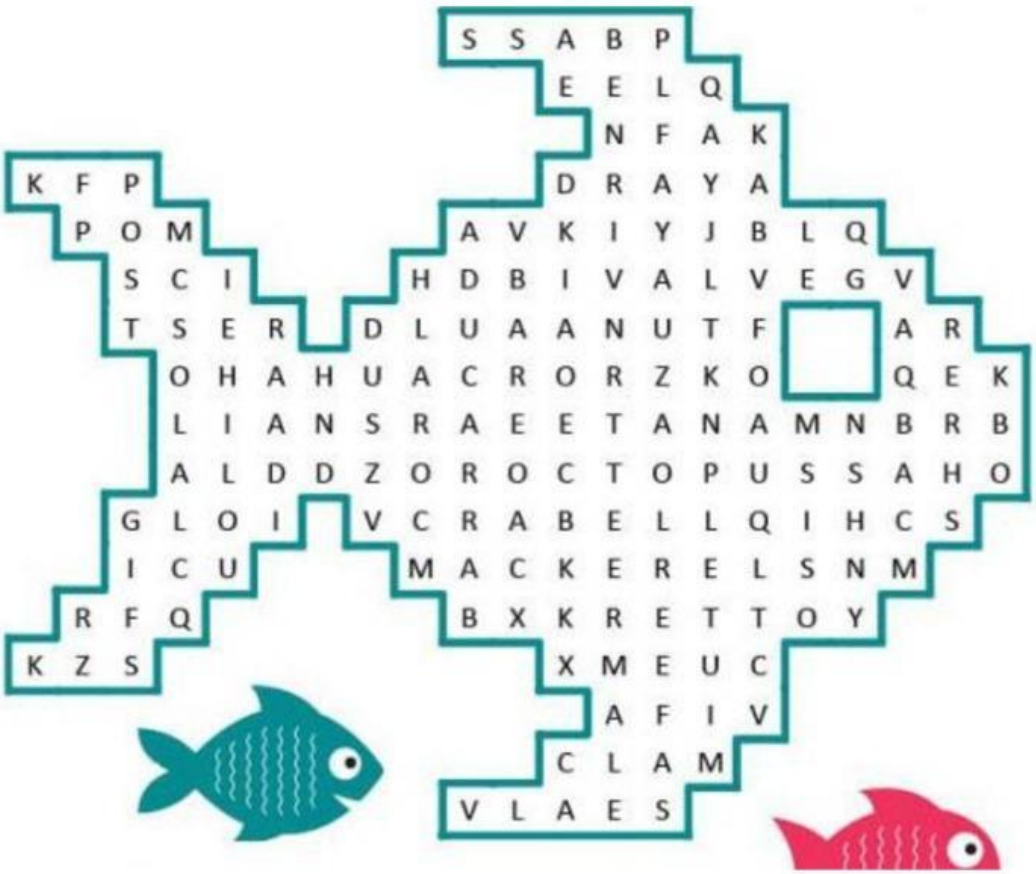

There are thousands of (2)_____that live in the ocean. Some of these animals are tuna, sharks, dolphins, and whales. Many other animals like oysters, crabs, starfish, and sea urchins live on the seashore.

Mammals that live in the ocean breathe with their (3)_____. A whale is a (4)_____, and a shark is a (5)_____. Whales breathe with their lungs. Sharks have gills instead of lung to breathe with.

In some places, oceans can be a very cold place to live. Some marine mammals are able to stay warm because they have thick skin of fur. Some of these mammals are the walrus, polar bear, whale, and seal.

lungs	water	animals	mammal	fish

2. WORDSEARCH

Algae
Barracuda
Bivalve
Clam
Crab
Diatoms
Ocean
Octopus
Otter
Ray
Shark
Seal
Shrimp
Squid

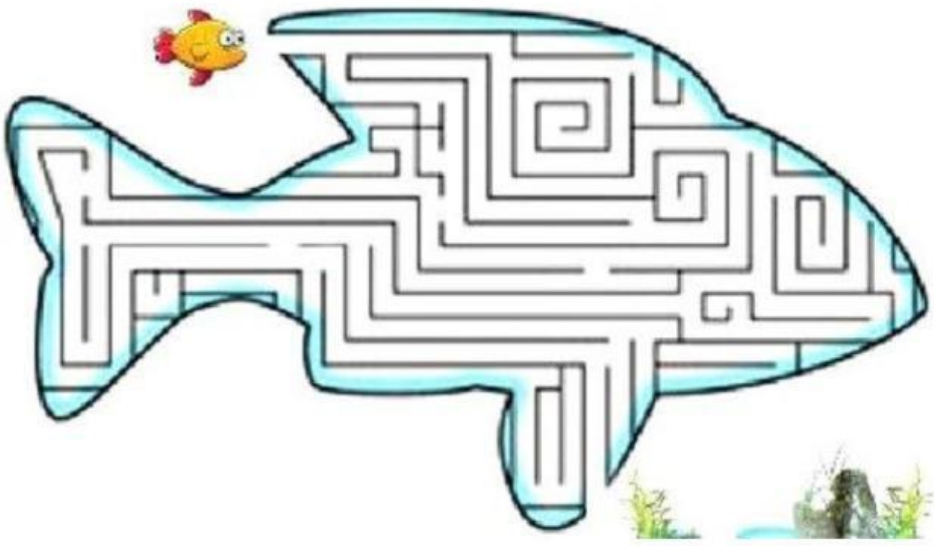

LIVEWORKSHEETS

3. CROSSWORDS.

1 -	2 -	3 -
4 -	5 -	6 -
7 -	8 -	9 -
10 -	11 -

4. MAZE

LIVEWORKSHEETS

VIDEOS/GAMES

LIVEWORKSHEETS