

1. Choose the correct option.

Alex: Hey Jamie, have you noticed how a little / much / a lot of people are using smartwatches these days?

Jamie: Yes, I have. It seems like most of / many / each our classmates have one. They should have / must have found them useful.

Alex: I could have / can't have bought one too, but I spent a few / a little / some too much on video games last month.

Jamie: Well, you should have / shouldn't have saved some money. Smartwatches can be quite handy. They track your health, show notifications, and every / both / no of us know how important that is.

Alex: True, but I have a little / much / a few concerns. I'm worried about becoming too dependent on it. Plus, I may not have / can't have / shouldn't have enough time to learn all its features.

Jamie: I understand your concerns. But remember, no / none / any one becomes an expert in a day. It takes a little / many time and patience.

Alex: You're right. I wouldn't have / shouldn't have dismissed the idea so quickly. I'll consider getting one.

Jamie: That's the spirit, Alex! And remember, you don't need to know all / most of / every feature. Just the ones that are useful to you.

Alex: Thanks, Jamie. I'll keep that in mind.
