

Vocabulary

Talking about the news

1 Complete each news story with a word. The first letter is given.

- 1 The president caused c yesterday with a tweet about women's rights.
- 2 A national newspaper has e a cover-up within the Ministry for Transport.
- 3 The treatment of a woman in a wheelchair by a bus driver has caused o on social media.
- 4 A new law regarding tax on donations has been widely w by charities.
- 5 The government have decided to impose t on cars imported from overseas.
- 6 Scientists say they've had a major b in the fight against diabetes.

2 Complete the conversations with phrases a–l.

- 1 A: That TV presenter's had to resign from his job.
B: He shouldn't have made such 1 online.
A: It certainly 2 among the public.
- 2 A: I think the prime minister's resignation will 3, don't you?
B: Yes, probably. I know we only voted last year, but I think a new vote would be 4 by the public.
- 3 A: Do you think Manchester City will 5?
B: I hope so. It'll 6 around here if they do!
- 4 A: I see the president has 7 again.
B: It's not surprising. A lot of people disagree with him.
A: He's decided to 8 on climate change that so many other countries have signed.
- 5 A: What do you think 9 on the street this weekend?
B: I think a lot of young people are fed up with the unemployment rate.
C: Yes, that was certainly 10.
- 6 A: Did you see that 11 at the hospital?
B: Yes! Apparently, some doctors weren't qualified.
A: Yes, it's shocking. There's been 12 of it on the news.

- a a contributing factor
- b a cover-up has been exposed
- c an offensive comment
- d caused a lot of outrage
- e cause a lot of excitement
- f caused controversy
- g get through to the semi-finals
- h massive coverage
- i trigger another election
- j triggered the riots
- k widely welcomed
- l withdraw from the treaty

Grammar

Second, third and mixed conditionals

3 Choose the correct alternatives.

- 1 We'd never have met if we didn't go/hadn't gone to Mara's wedding.
- 2 If you hadn't gone to bed so late, you might not be/have been so tired right now.
- 3 We could stay/could have stayed later if you'd wanted to.
- 4 We'd be there by now if we left/d left earlier.
- 5 If I wanted/d wanted help, I'd ask for it.
- 6 If you hadn't noticed this flat was for rent, we wouldn't be living/have lived here now.
- 7 If I had been/were you, I'd go and see a doctor.
- 8 I wouldn't be here today if you didn't persuade/hadn't persuaded me to come.

4 Complete the article using the prompts in brackets.

Alternative histories

We're all aware of those huge news stories in the past which changed the world. But 1 (what if / those stories) different?

2 (how / our history / turn out)? That's what writers of alternative histories wonder. They take a moment in history and make it different. For example, 3 (how / our world / different / if / women) in charge for centuries? 4 (might / women / make) different decisions? 5 (the outcomes) better or worse? 6

(how / life / different / if / the southern states / win) the US civil war? 7

(the south / leave) the union? 8 (they) two separate countries today? These questions provide the backdrop to fascinating stories that both entertain and make us think.

