What is a "subject" pronoun/Noun?

The subject pronoun/noun is always a person, thing, place, or idea, or the plural of one of those, i.e. people, things, places, or ideas.

A subject pronoun is a word that replaces a personal noun and must be the subject(not the object) of the sentence.

It is the type of pronoun that functions as the subject in the sentence and performs the actions of the verb.

Subject pronouns are used as grammatical subjects in a sentence.
