UNIT 3- TEST 2

1. This is a - - - - .

A) recipe
B) list of ingredients
C) photo of a dish
D) cooking programme

When you come home from school, there is a bad smell in the kitchen. Your mother forgets to turn off the cooker.

2. What can be the problem?

A) She cooks a tasty meal.
B) She burns the cake.
C) You come home early.
D) You turn off the cooker.

When Susan wants to cook something different, she usually calls and asks her mum because her mother went to a cooking course. So she knows everything about cooking.

3. Why does Susan call her mum?

A) Her mother is crazy about eating.
B) Her mother is good at cooking.
C) Her mother prefers eating out.
D) Susan is bad at remembering the ingredients.

4. Which one do we need in the beginning of the recipe?

A)
B)
C)
D)

I. I'm sorry, it's all gone. Would you like anything else?
II. OK. It will be ready in 10 minutes.
III. Can I have some mashed potatoes, please?
IV. What would you like to have, sir?
V. I will take stuffed potato, then.

5. Put the sentences in the correct order.

A) IV-III-I-V-II
B) IV-III-II-V-I
C) III-II-I-IV-V
D) III-I-IV-V-II

LIVEWORKSHEETS

I'm into feijoada and pasta. Pasta is the traditional dish of Italy and it is easy to make. Feijoada is the traditional food in Brazil, but it isn't easy to make. Most of teenagers love feijoada, too.

Sally

What can we say about feijoada according to the text?

A) Feijoada isn't popular in Brazil.
B) Teenagers hate feijoada.
C) Feijoada isn't difficult to make.
D) Sally likes feijoada.

If you want to make mashed potatoes, first of all, cook them in hot water. Then, take the skin of potatoes. After that, mash them. If you put some butter on mashed potatoes, they will be more delicious.

Which one is not related to the text?

A)

B)

C)

D)

Sena : What's your favourite snack?

Edward : Hamburger.

Sena : Can you prepare it?

Edward : - - - - . My mum makes it for me.

Which one can be suitable for the blank?

A) I can't either
B) Yes, usually
C) Not really
D) Of course, I can

Answer the questions (9-10) according to the text below

Hi, I'm Linda. I work at a restaurant. I'm really into cooking, but it's hard to work in a restaurant because I have to work and cook all day. I get up at 7 o'clock every day because I have to start working at 7:30. I seldom get on the bus at 7:15. I often drive to work. We serve seafood, chicken and steak at the restaurant. When I arrive at the restaurant first, I have to bake bread. Then, I have to boil the vegetables. Next, I have to fry potatoes. After that, I have to grill the fish, chicken and steak. Finally, we can serve the dishes. After a tiring day, I get home at 9 pm.

What does Linda do first when she goes to the restaurant?

A) She bakes bread.
B) She serves seafood, chicken and steak.
C) She boils the vegetables.
D) She catches the bus.

What can we say about the text?

A) Linda's job is not tiring.
B) Linda starts working at quarter past seven.
C) Cooking is boring for Linda.
D) Linda rarely goes to work by bus.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

LIVEWORKSHEETS