

match the vocabulary with the correct definition

- | | |
|---|--|
| 1. wonder (n) | a. the air you take from your nose of mouth |
| 2. breath (n) | b. having nothing/bringing nothing |
| 3. take something for granted (phrase) | c. the feeling of surprise or amazement |
| 4. empty-handed (adj) | d. to not value someone/something enough |
| 5. settle for (for) | e. the easiest way to continue |
| 6. the path of least resistance (idiom) | f. enjoyable or useful, although you have to try hard |
| 7. worth it (idiom) | g. to want to do something, without thinking about the possible dangerous results |
| 8. be hell-bent on something (idiom) | h. to agree to, or accept something, although it's not what you want |
| 9. bitter (adj) | i. to think again about a decision and decide if you want to change it |
| 10. selling out (phrase) | j. to give up support for a person or belief for money or personal gain |
| 11. reconsider (v) | a quick look at someone or something |
| 12. glance (n) | l. feeling angry and unhappy because they cannot forget bad things that happened in the past |