

Zero conditional

- We use the zero conditional to talk about actions or situations that are ALWAYS true.
- We use the present tense in both clauses.
- The IF clause can come FIRST (1) or SECOND (2) in the sentence. The meaning is the same.

Complete the sentences using the zero conditional using the verbs in brackets.

1. My grandma always _____ (feel) happy when she _____ (see) a black cat.
2. Plants _____ (grow) well if they _____ (have) enough water.
3. You _____ (be) healthy if you _____ (eat) fruits and vegetables.
4. If you _____ (see) dolphins, you _____ (be) close to the coast.
5. If you _____ (run) too much, you _____ (get) tired.

6. You _____ (arrive) late if you _____ (not take) the bus quickly.

Look at the pictures below and complete the statements using the zero conditional. Look at the verbs in the box to complete the sentences.

run	study	Fail
Do	eat	Listen

If I am stressed,

I _____ to music

You can fall if you _____ fast

You get indigestion if you _____ a lot

You get good grades if you _____ hard.

If you _____ exercise, you are strong.

If you don't pay attention to class, you _____ your exam.