

Use the corresponding reflexive, personal, object or possessive pronoun.

1. Mother is busy today and will come only at 6. We'll have to make dinner.
2. George is really selfish. _____ only thinks about _____ and nobody else.
3. I've got a problem. Could you help _____?
4. My father is working really hard these days so we only see _____ at weekends.
5. We had a great holiday last summer. We really enjoyed _____. I think you should join _____ next time.
6. What Susan did was wrong and she is still ashamed of _____.
7. When the Smiths come to us, they always bring _____ dog with _____.
8. Vlad, take the money with _____ in case you need it.
9. That wasn't your fault, girls. You can't blame _____.
10. Sophie, help _____ to coffee. It's on the table.
11. Don't worry about my brother and me. We can look after _____.
12. The two sisters stood in front of the mirror looking at _____.
13. I don't have to pay for _____. I can pay for _____.
14. It's the twins' birthday tomorrow. I think we need to buy presents for _____.
15. Bob is only three years old but he can dress _____ and brush _____ teeth.
16. We are going to the action park on Sunday. Would _____ like to come with _____?
17. Sue's brother is in hospital. _____ hurt _____ while building the shed. Sue visits _____ every day.
18. Could you please bring _____ my keys? _____ are on _____ table in the office.

New Year in Kolomna (21.01.2024)