

Fill in the preposition where necessary.

1. A couple of people objected ... the proposal, but the vast majority approved of it.
2. A narrow path led ... their cottage.
3. A new campaign is aimed at discouraging children ... watching too much television.
4. Anna reminds me ... her mother.
5. Church leaders have appealed ... the government to halt the war.
6. Fierce winds prevented the race ... taking place.
7. He succeeded ... building the business into one of the leaders in its field.
8. He was able to provide the police ... some valuable information.
9. Her responsibilities consist ... answering the phone and greeting visitors.
10. How long do you spend ... your homework?
11. How much do you charge ... hiring out a bicycle for a week?
12. I congratulated Jill ... winning the award.
13. I don't always approve ... his methods, but he certainly gets excellent results.
14. I have always regretted ... not having studied harder at school.
15. I waited ... her outside while she went in to see the doctor.
16. Icy conditions resulted ... two roads being closed.
17. In her autobiography she occasionally refers ... her unhappy childhood.
18. It's important to focus ... your strengths and to minimize your weaknesses.
19. Many adults follow ... the fashion in clothes as much as their children do.
20. She applied ... admission to law school.
21. She's used to dealing ... difficult customers.
22. The company is concentrating its resources ... developing new products.
23. The emergency services are working at full stretch today to cope ... the accident.
24. The police entered ... the building through the side door.
25. The success of this project relies ... everyone making an effort.
26. There are hundreds of nuclear missiles aimed ... the main cities.
27. Tourism contributes substantially ... the local economy.
28. We have to face ... facts here - we simply don't have enough money.
29. You can depend ... Jack - he's the most reliable man I know.
30. You should ask your accountant ... some financial advice.
31. You're faced ... a very difficult choice there.