

Fill in the preposition where necessary.

1. A good architect takes ... account the building's surroundings.
2. After the Second World War Germany was divided ... two separate countries.
3. Bearing ... mind how young she is, I thought she did really well.
4. Don't pay any attention ... Nina - she doesn't know what she's talking about.
5. Don't worry about me, I can take care ... myself.
6. He fell ... love ... a young girl from the neighbouring village.
7. He prides himself ... his loyalty to his friends.
8. I can't wait to get rid ... that ugly old couch.
9. I decided to get ... touch ... Ted, against all his friends' advice.
10. I didn't think Larry had anything ... common ... Patricia, but they talked all evening.
11. I have never kept ... touch ... Jen after college.
12. I just can't get used ... waking up early.
13. I think he took it ... granted that he'd be re-elected and it came as a shock when he lost.
14. I think it would be wrong to come ... the conclusion that the world is now a more dangerous place.
15. I think we should keep ... our original plan.
16. If they have the virus they are putting patients ... risk ... contamination.
17. If you don't take professional pride ... your work, you're probably in the wrong job.
18. It's up to you how you make use ... this information.
19. I've always had an interest ... aviation.
20. Of course, repair work is expensive and you have to keep that ... mind.
21. On the basis of that one conversation, he mistakenly reached ... the conclusion that Sara wasn't interested in the job.
22. She doesn't usually take part ... any of the class activities.
23. She made ... her mind to call him again.
24. She took lots of photos ... the kids.
25. The Council voted ... favour ... a £200 million housing development.
26. The new management actually has not had much effect ... us.
27. The patient was trying to remember all his recent meals to make sure ... the diagnosis.
28. The sudden noise took her ... surprise.
29. The teacher put me ... charge ... organizing the project.
30. They take a lively interest ... their grandchildren.
31. They're organizing a campaign to draw people's attention ... the environmentally harmful effects of using their cars.
32. This dictionary went ... online in 1999.
33. We all argued about it for hours and eventually arrived ... a decision.
34. We are worried that some kayakers aren't taking safety ... consideration.
35. We'd better stick ... the main road, because the other roads are blocked with snow.
36. Why not take advantage ... this special discount?
37. Will you keep your eye ... my suitcase while I go to get the tickets?