

Title: "My Life Story"

Introduction:

Hello, everyone! I am _____.

I was born on a _____ day in _____, Thailand. I want to share my life story with you.

Early Life:

I grew up in _____ with my family. We were happy, and I have _____ brothers and sisters. We did many fun things together, like exploring our neighborhood and eating tasty food cooked by my mom.

School Days:

I went to _____ School.
I liked reading and writing stories. The city where I lived was exciting, and I made good friends at school.

Hobbies:

In my free time, I enjoyed watching movies and listening to music. I also liked dancing, which made me happy.
Exploring different places in Thailand,
from _____ to
_____, became a special hobby.

Achievements:

Later, I started studying in _____ . I became part of first-year class studying in the major of _____. Each project taught me about learning English and many other subjects and activities like presentations and speaking with confidence.

Challenges:

Life has challenges, and I faced some too. Working on homework in _____ was not always easy, but I learned that hard work is important. My family and friends supported me during tough times.

Future Dreams:

Looking ahead, I want to help others.

My dream is to become a

_____ or a

_____. I hope to make a positive difference in the lives of

_____.

Conclusion:

Writing this story made me think about my journey. I hope you enjoyed learning a bit about me. Thank you for being part of my story!