

CUTE

EXERCISE 2 FINITE AND NON-FINITE

Directions I: Join each of the following pairs of sentences using either a present participle (v+ing), a past participle (v3), or a perfect participle (having+v3) as in the example.

Example:

After I had seen pictures of the place, I had no desire to go there.

= Having seen pictures of the place, I had no desire to go there.

She entered the room suddenly. She found them playing cards.

= Entering the room suddenly, she found them playing cards.

We were soaked to the skin. We reached the station.

= Soaked to the skin, we reached the station.

1. I was sitting at the back of the hall. I heard very little of the speech.

= _

2. I did not know that he was poor. I did not give him any money.

= _

3. He had read that book before. He didn't want to read it again.

= _

4. The thief stole the gold. He looked for a place to hide it.

= _

5. The gardener was digging in the garden. The gardener found a box of gold.

= _

6. The student had apologized to the teacher for coming late. He went to his desk.

= _