Colour & Decoration

Choose the correct word to complete the sentences

- It's a bit run down / well-cared for, with paint failing off the walls and holes in the floor. Are you sure you want to buy it?
- The kitchen in this London house is north / south - facing, which means you get plenty of sun during the day.
- You get more space living in a suburban / terraced house, but I'd miss living in the city centre.
- I love pale / strong colours like red and bright orange. I can't see the point of painting a room if you don't notice the colour.
- My grandmother's house is one of those old-fashioned cottages with a cosy / impersonal sitting room and a fireplace.
- That's a cheerful / dreary-looking room. Don't you find the dark colours a bit depressing?
- The walls in this room are rather bare / cluttered. We could put some pictures up to make it feel more homely.
