

1. The boss sent us a [memo / memento / keepsake / memory] about the meeting, so we wouldn't forget.
2. His memories of the past are still [memorial / withdrawn / refreshed / vivid].
3. He bought a small [statue / flashback / cue / prompt] of Athena as a souvenir of his trip to the Acropolis.
4. He takes a vitamin C [retention / supplement / property / hindsight] when he gets a cold.
5. We often [claim / tribute / prompt / reminisce] about the past when we all got together.
6. Pele is a [reversed / reflected / legendary / reminded] football player.
7. I got you a present as a [keepsake / memory / memo / memorabilia] of your stay here.
8. This song [evokes / plants / refreshes / summons] memories for dad of his teenage years.
9. Dad texted me a [reminder / summon / prompt / supplement] to buy some milk.
10. I didn't keep the photos, but in [reverse / retention / hindsight / vivid], I wish I had.
11. She feels [memento / tribute / nostalgia / amnesia] for her schooldays and wishes she was still a child.
12. One [property / reflection / ingestion / statue] of chamomile is that it helps you relax.
13. The parade on March 25th [memorizes / commemorates / reminds / withdraws] the people who fought in the war.
14. We dug out our old childhood photos and took a trip down memory [property / lane / street / plant].
15. These childhood photos [reflect / reverse / retrospect / summon up] fond memories of the past.
16. We sent flowers to his funeral as a [claim / hindsight / tribute / memento] to a great man.
17. He had a sudden [commemorate / supplement / summon / flashback] from his school days when he scored a goal.
18. That is a serious matter and I think you should [reverse / reflect / remind / retrospect] on it carefully.
19. I'm not surprised Tim won the general knowledge quiz – his [retention / reminder / refresh / reflection] of facts is quite extraordinary.

20. If we could [keepsake / commemorate / reverse / prompt] the ageing process, we would all look young again.