At school, students gather in the c_____ for lunch, chatting and enjoying the food prepared by the dedicated canteen staff. In the office, administrative matters are efficiently handled by the school o_____ personnel. On the p_____ f_____, students engage in various sports during break time, showcasing their athleticism and teamwork.

In the classroom, Information and Communication Technology tools are utilized to enhance learning experiences, with students conducting experiments in S_____ class and using digital resources to supplement their studies. English lessons often involve discussions on s__ b_____, where students express their interpretations and insights.

Some students may find it i_____ to do certain tasks initially, but with perseverance and support from teachers, they can overcome challenges. Homework assignments are expected to be h_____ in on time, and students are encouraged to m_____ key concepts for upcoming exams.

Teachers strive to m_____ their students to actively participate in class discussions and p__ a_____ during lessons. Students conduct experiments, analyze data, and report f_____ to their peers, fostering a collaborative learning environment. During exam periods, diligent students dedicate time to r_____ and study hard to achieve a_____ success.

The teaching s____ employ various teaching methods, from traditional l_____ to interactive activities, to cater to different learning styles. They use board e_____ to maintain clear and accurate presentations on the blackboard, while students keep track of their progress in co_____ and e_____ books.

In the classroom, students sit in a neat r____ of desks, equipped with essential tools like r_____ and t_____. Academic performance is measured through academic results, and schools uphold high academic s_____ to ensure quality education. Students earn c_____ for their achievements and prepare to e_____ their knowledge through tests and exams.

Throughout their school journey, students may encounter various educational institutions, from n_____ schools to h____ schools. Some may attend co-educational schools, while others opt for i_____ schools known for their rigorous academic programs. Regardless of the type of school, attendance is c_____, and n_____ are warmly welcomed during open days.

Schools may offer p_____ education plans to cater to individual student needs, whether it's through specialized programs, student e_____ programmes, or support for students with learning differences. Each term brings new opportunities for learning and growth, though occasional disruptions may arise from the occasional t_____ in the class.

LIVEWORKSHEETS