Tech Free Camp

If you couldn't check your email account for days on end, what would you do? If you couldn't look at your Instagram feed every day, how would you feel? Would you be happy if you didn't know 24/7 what your friends had had for dinner and the sunsets they'd seen? Would you be willing to live without technology for a few days if you knew it would be beneficial for you?

If that sounds miserable to you, then Tech Free Camp might not be for you. But if you are curious about the idea of being "unplugged", Tech Free Camp might be just what you're looking for.

TFC is a luxury camp set in a beautiful woodland area surrounded by mountains. We offer retreats for 1, 2, or 3 weeks. During your stay you can do yoga, play tennis, swim, chat, relax, laugh—whatever you want to do—but you may NOT be digitally connected. No cell phone, no tablet, no laptop. Just you and nature. This is a time to chill out and enjoy some downtime away from technology. At the end of your stay you'll be relaxed and renewed, and you'll return to real life with plenty of posts and messages to read!

Read some feedback about TFC from happy customers of all ages:

Magda71

I wish I had known about TFC a year ago because I would have come here then. Last year I had a very stressful 9 to 5 job and I really needed someone to tell me to stop checking emails and Twitter 24/7.

Denis.the.Denis

My daughter treated me to a week at TFC. It was a great experience and I had some real me time. Looking back on it now, though, I wish I had stayed longer. Back in the real world, it didn't take long for me to forget about my digital detox.

Kolya95

If you knew how great TFC makes you feel, you would try it today!
