4) Based on the previous reading, read each statement below and choose the expert (A, B, C, or D) "Robots: Friend or Enemy?" who is most likely to have said it.

1. AI will help us solve global issues, but it's uncertain what will happen if machines surpass human intelligence.

    a) Expert A.

    b) Expert B.

    c) Expert C.

    d) Expert D.

2. The idea of machines being smarter than humans is frightening, and could lead to mass unemployment and social issues.

    a) Expert A.

    b) Expert B.

    c) Expert C.

    d) Expert D.

3. Improving our bodies with technology will speed up human evolution, and the benefits of AI outweigh the risks.

    a) Expert A.

    b) Expert B.

    c) Expert C.

d) Expert D.

4. Autonomous military machines are a reality and could lead to robots deciding who to kill, which is unethical and dangerous.

    a) Expert A.

    b) Expert B.

    c) Expert C.

    d) Expert D.

5. In 30 to 40 years, we might see AI that is completely independent, and it's up to us to ensure its positive impact.

    a) Expert A.

    b) Expert B.

    c) Expert C.

    d) Expert D.

6. The rapid development of machine intelligence might make humans biologically obsolete.

    a) Expert A.

    b) Expert B.

    c) Expert C.

    d) Expert D.

7.   I'm excited about the possibility of embedding computers in our brains to enhance our capabilities.

      a) Expert A.

      b) Expert B.

      c) Expert C.

      d) Expert D.

8.   We should be cautious about military robots that operate with minimal human control.

      a) Expert A.

      b) Expert B.

      c) Expert C.

      d) Expert D.

5) Fill in the Blanks: Based on the reading, complete each sentence with the appropriate word or phrase. Use the context to find the right answer.

1. AI could help us solve many _____ issues.

2. Experts are concerned about machines becoming more intelligent than _____.

3. There are fears that robots might replace human jobs, leading to _____.

4. In the future, we might see robots that are completely _____.

5. The idea of _____ computers in our brains to enhance our capabilities is fascinating.

6. There have been some issues with self-driving cars and robot _____ cleaners.

7. Military machines like drones are being used with very little human _____.