Carol's Advice Column

Dear Carol,

I'm a student in the 11th grade. My problem is that I am always tired. Sometimes I fall asleep in class. Yesterday, I went to a movie with friends and they had to wake me up at the end of the movie. When I'm tired I often get angry with my friends and family. My 5 parents were worried so I went to the doctor. He said that I'm healthy and just need more sleep. I sleep at least seven hours on school nights. Isn't that enough?

Hope to hear from you soon

Nick

Dear Nick,

10 Your doctor is right! You don't get enough sleep. You have the same problem that many teenagers have. Studies show that teenagers need more than nine hours of sleep to function well all day long. However, most teenagers sleep only seven hours a night. This is because some teenagers have trouble falling asleep and others go to bed late. Of course they all have to get up early in the morning for school.

15 You wrote that when you don't get enough sleep you feel tired and get angry easily. It is also difficult for you to study. So, here are some suggestions. Try to go to sleep earlier. If you have trouble falling asleep, do something relaxing before you go to bed. Read a book or take a warm shower. Don't watch TV or use your computer. During the day, don't drink a lot of cola and other drinks that have caffeine in 20 them.

A few schools are trying to help their students. They start the school day one hour later in the morning. Why don't you talk to your principal? Maybe your school will agree to do the same.
