A DAY OUT

Yesterday morning, I woke early, at seven o'clock. While I _____ (have) my breakfast, which was some cereal and tea, my phone _____ (make) a loud sound. It was my friend, Sarah. She had a fun idea. She wanted to go shopping and spend the day together. I said "yes" quickly and got ready to meet her.

When I _____ (see) Sarah at the big shopping centre, she _____ (look) at a pretty dress through the window. We went into the shop together. While Sarah _____ (try) on different dresses, I _____ (find) a nice hat. I put it on, and it looked good, so I bought it.

After shopping for a few hours, we felt hungry. We went to a small café that was very cosy. While we _____ (eat) tasty sandwiches and _____ (drink) warm coffee, Sarah _____ (talk) about some old friends from school. We laughed a lot and enjoyed our time.

When we _____ (leave) the café, the sky _____ (be) grey and it looked like rain. While we _____ (think) about what to do next, it _____ (start) to rain a little. We stood under a cover and watched people walking quickly with their umbrellas.

The rain stopped soon, and a big rainbow appeared in the sky. It was very beautiful. We took some photos with the rainbow behind us. While we _____ (take) photos, we _____ (hear) music. A man was playing the guitar near us. His music was very nice, so we stayed to listen for a while.

It _____ (get) dark when we _____ (decide) to have dinner. We went to a small Italian restaurant that we both like. While we _____ (eat) pasta and _____ (talk) about our day, we _____ (make) plans for another day out. It was a very good way to end the day.

When I _____ (get) home, it _____ (be) late. I was tired but happy. I got ready for bed and thought about the fun day. I was happy to spend time with my friend.
