

• BAKE •

Name: _____

M.3/_

No. __

TRY IT

Change the given active sentences to the passive.

1. The thief steals delicious meals every day. (Affirmative)
=
2. A burglar burgled my sister's house yesterday. (Negative)
=
3. The robber will rob the bank tomorrow. (Interrogative)
=
4. Shoplifters are stealing candies from the shop. (Affirmative)
=
5. The detectives have just interrogated the suspects in the crime scene.
(Interrogative)
=

Change the sentences to passive causative form

1. I want you to catch the pickpocket red-handed.
=
2. The police wants to drive away these criminals.
=

Change the sentences to participial phrases.

1. My mom felt under the weather. She was walking in the rain.
=
2. When he had got to see his grade. He was on cloud nine.
=
3. Our car was drawn up by the waiters. we got off the car.
=