

I've always wanted to have a talent for...3. Complete the stories about people and their talents using the words in the boxes.

a) music (x2) musical musician

Jason discovered his talent when he was at high school. He joined a school band and soon started to write his own Today, he works as a professional, and he does everything he can to perfect his skills because he's very passionate about playing and creating

b) sing singer singing

Monika was very shy when she was a child and never thought she could become a However, all her friends who heard her often told her how good she was. A local talent show helped her demonstrate her talent to a big audience. Since then, she's been working hard to improve her skills.

c) paint painter painting (x2)

Andrea had always wanted to learn how to, but her job left her no time for hobbies. Luckily, Andrea got a new job last month and now she has enough time for her lessons. She's very serious about, so she wants to perfect her skills and become a one day.

d) dance dancer dancing

Jacob decided to take up as a way to keep fit, but soon he realized he had a talent for it. Today, he can so well that it allows him to take part in different competitions. He thinks that if you want to be a great, you need to work on your skills all the time.