

1 Listen and read. Then say.

Are there enough cans of soda? No, there aren't.
 Is there enough salad? Yes, there is.
 Is there too much bread? Yes, there is.
 Are there too many jars of honey?

2 Listen and sing. Then underline too many, too much, and isn't enough.

Are there too many bags, bottles, and jars?

Are there just too many to fit in my car?

Oh, there isn't enough space in your car,

For all these bags, bottles, and jars!

Is there too much food for my car?

Is there just too much to fit in my car?

Oh, there isn't enough space in your car

For all these bags, bottles, and jars!

3 Look at Activity 2. Talk to a friend.

- 1 Are there too many bags?
- 2 Is there too much food?
- 3 Is there enough space in the car?

Grammar Stop

Is there too much ...?
 Are there too many ...?
 Is there enough ...?
 Are there enough ...?