

Comparing nouns
Two things	Edward has more video games than George does.
Three or more things (Group)	I have fewer cousins than you do.
	Mark has the most video games in the school.
	Jennifer had the fewest mistakes of all on the test.

Exercises:

1. At one point, New York City had about 140 skyscrapers, Chicago had about 68, and Houston had about 36. Houston had _____ skyscrapers of these cities.

2. Ashrita Furman holds many world records, such as jumping the longest distance on a pogo stick. In fact, he holds _____ Guinnes World Records of any one person.

3. Pedro has _____ medals than Enrique.

4. Mandarin Chinese has about 500 million _____ native speakers than English does.

5. Saturn has from 500 to 1,000 rings. Uranus has 11 rings, and Jupiter has four. Jupiter has _____ rings.

6. Mars has two moons. It has _____ moons than Neptune, which has 13.

7. The Spanish word with _____ letters is electroencefalografistas. It has 24 letters and is a type of medical worker.

8. Thailand exports about 9 million tons of rice a year, Vietnam exports about 4.6 million tons, and India exports about 4.5 million tons. Thailand exports _____ rice of the three countries.

9. Aswan, Egypt gets only .02 inches (.5 mm) of rain a year. It gets _____ inches of rain of any inhabited city.

10. The Hawaiian alphabet has 14 letters. It has _____ letters than Rotokas, which has 11 letters.