

Checklist

- Write a story about a decision you made, explain what happened because of that choice, and think about what you learned from the experience.
- Plan and make changes to improve your story.
- Explain why you made those changes.
- Start your story with an introduction.
- Share your feelings, thoughts, and actions in the middle.
- End your story by talking about what happened because of your choice.
- Make your story clear by using details that appeal to the senses (like sight, sound, and touch).
- It's okay if you make some mistakes in spelling and punctuation, as long as they don't distract from your story.
