WOF/ The Dragonet Prophecy: Chapter 4

Answer:

1-5	16-20
6-10	21-25
11-15	26-30

1. Why was Clay skeptical about the legends of the NightWings initially?
A. He had never seen a NightWing.
B. He thought scavengers ruled the world.
C. He found Starflight unmagical and ordinary.
D. He was afraid of the dark.

2. How does the description of Morrowseer challenge Clay's previous beliefs about NightWings?
A. Morrowseer was smaller than he expected.
B. Morrowseer appeared friendly and welcoming.
C. Morrowseer was less intimidating than Starflight.
D. Morrowseer's terrifying presence made the legends seem real.

3. What reaction did Morrowseer provoke in Starflight during the inspection?
A. Starflight immediately started to fight back.
B. Starflight began to talk back at Morrowseer.
C. Starflight froze hoping to become invisible.
D. Starflight willingly showed off his abilities.

4. Why did Morrowseer express contempt when he first saw Glory?
A. Glory was not doing what she was instructed to do.
B. Glory's scales were dull and unimpressive.
C. Glory was not the type of dragonet Morrowseer had expected.
D. Glory challenged Morrowseer openly upon his arrival.

5. What does Clay's internal monologue about cows reveal about his state of mind?
A. He is feeling hungry and thinking about his next meal.
B. He hopes Morrowseer doesn't realize he is actually a cow.
C. He's trying to distract himself from his fear of Morrowseer.
D. He wishes to become a farmer after the ordeal is over.

6. What does Tsunami's plea to Morrowseer reveal about her character?
A. She is content with her life in the caves.
B. She is afraid of change and new adventures.
C. She's desperate for freedom and new experiences.
D. She wants Morrowseer to punish their guardians.

7. What does the interaction between Morrowseer and Sunny indicate about Sunny's character?
A. Sunny is cowardly and relies on others to defend her.
B. Sunny is unable to protect herself and is ineffective in combat.
C. Despite her size, Sunny is courageous and resourceful.
D. Sunny lacks combat training and is a hindrance to the group.

8. What does Glory's response to Morrowseer's scrutiny imply about her feelings?
A. Glory is indifferent to Morrowseer's opinion.
B. Glory is pleased with Morrowseer's arrival.
C. Glory is fearful of Morrowseer's power.
D. Glory feels ashamed of her heritage.

9. What does Clay's wish to protect his friends from Morrowseer suggest?
A. Clay prefers to avoid confrontation at all costs.
B. Clay is envious of Morrowseer's power and position.
C. Clay is selfless and deeply values the safety of his friends.
D. Clay is planning an escape from the caves without his friends.

10. How is Starflight's behavior toward Morrowseer's inspection best described?
A. Recklessly offensive.
B. Eagerly participative.
C. Aggressively confrontational.
D. Cautiously submissive.

11. How does Morrowseer perceive the guardians' choice to include Glory in place of the lost SkyWing egg?
A. He is indifferent to their substitution.
B. He admires their resourcefulness.
C. He is outraged by their decision.
D. He is pleased with Glory's appearance.

12. What theme is most evident when Tsunami speaks out against their treatment and life within the caves?
A. The importance of maintaining tradition.
B. The struggle for personal freedom and autonomy.
C. The desire for education and scholarly pursuits.
D. The commitment to fulfilling one's destiny without question.

13. What does Clay's intervention in Morrowseer's attack on Tsunami suggest about his impulses?
A. They are driven by careful strategic planning.
B. They are based on a desire for personal glory.
C. They are reckless and not well thought out.
D. They are rooted in protective instincts.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

14. What does Morrowseer's action towards Tsunami reveal about his character?
A. He is compassionate and forgiving.
B. He is impulsive and prone to violent outbursts.
C. He is patient and understanding of rebellion.
D. He is playful and enjoys roughhousing.

15. How does Sunny's success in the fight demonstrate the underestimation of her abilities?
A. She outmaneuvers Morrowseer's superior speed.
B. She utilizes her size to access a vulnerable spot.
C. She intimidates Morrowseer with her fierce roar.
D. She showcases her ability to breathe fire.

16. What is Tsunami's main concern when the thundering crash is heard?
A. Waiting until morning to find out what happened
B. Ensuring everyone stays safe in their caves
C. Finding out what's happening right away
D. Preventing Clay from following her

17. Why does Sunny not participate in the spying?
A. She does not know how to swim
B. She is not trusted with secrets
C. She chooses to stay behind to read scrolls
D. She is asleep

18. Which dragon has a unique ability to breathe underwater?
A. MudWings
B. Glory
C. Starflight
D. SeaWings

19. What characteristic of NightWings is mentioned by Clay?
A. They are very forgetful
B. They are known for their nurturing personality
C. They have no interest in the ongoing war
D. They are superpowered and mysterious

20. Why does Tsunami activate the glow-in-the-dark stripe on her tail?
A. To avoid getting lost in the dark
B. To signal the other dragonets
C. To communicate with the guardians
D. To help Clay follow her in the dark

21. What does the reaction of Kestrel with fire indicate?
A. She is celebrating
B. She is cooking food
C. She is expressing joy
D. She is casting anger or frustration

22. What is Kestrel concerned about regarding Morrowseer's visit?
A. Ensuring the cave is clean
B. The safety of the visiting dragon
C. If Morrowseer knows about the prophecy deviations
D. Arranging a welcome party

23. Why do the guardians express negative opinions of Glory?
A. Because she is disobedient
B. Because she is not a SkyWing, as intended by the prophecy
C. Because she has failed to learn how to swim
D. Because she keeps escaping the cave

24. What quality does Webs attribute to Glory?
A. Laziness
B. Intelligence
C. Warmth and kindness
D. Strength and toughness

25. What makes Clay nervous when he is following Tsunami?
A. The dark surroundings
B. Squeezing through a small space in the cave walls
C. Losing sight of Tsunami
D. The possibility of the guardians catching them

26. What trait does MudWings' respiratory system possess?
A. The ability to breathe fire underwater
B. The ability to breathe air and water equally
C. The lack of a need to breathe
D. The capacity to hold breath for a long duration

27. Why was Dune probably selected for dragonet-minding duty?
A. Because of his nurturing personality
B. Due to his inability to fly
C. For his superior intelligence
D. Because he was the largest dragon

28. How does Glory usually react to the guardians' negative attitudes towards her?
A. She complains to the other dragonets
B. She acts like she does not care
C. She retaliates with fire
D. She tries to change their minds

29. What does Clay associate with Morrowseer's identity?
A. A dragon from history class
B. One of the tribe rulers
C. A guardian of the dragonets
D. The messenger of the prophecy

30. What is Clay's emotional reaction to overhearing the guardians' conversation regarding him and the other dragonets?
A. Happiness and excitement
B. Indifference and detachment
C. Understanding and agreement
D. A shocking realization

LIVEWORKSHEETS