Customers can also purchase our boxes, offered in various sizes and shapes. We'll supply the tape, scissors, and worktable.

We will continue to offer all the same services as before, but will assist you more quickly as the additional space will allow us to hire more employees to work during peak hours. As a reminder, our services include packing, shipping, mailing, faxing, and notarizing items as well as renting an expanded selection of individual mailboxes. Blake Dunlap	10:28 A.M. Hi, everyone. I'm happy to announce that Alstrop's board of directors has decided to open a sixth branch in Cleveland. Consequently, they'd like to transfer existing employees so that the branch is launched as quickly as possible. In fact, I need each of you to submit some staffing recommendations.
Cathy Schultz	10:30 A.M. Would the transfers be temporary? Many of our staff members have lived here in Inglewood their entire lives. They won't be happy about this.
Blake Dunlap	10:31 A.M. That will depend on the preference of each employee. Naturally, performance is also a factor.
Roy Reese	10:31 A.M. When's our target opening date?
Blake Dunlap	10:32 A.M. The branch must be fully operational by November 15 to take advantage of our year-end tire sale.
George Kesterson	10:32 A.M. If you're looking for an office administrator, I think Tammy Roselli would do a great job. She does have a family here though, so I'm unsure if she'd want to move.
Roy Reese	10:34 A.M. And for sales director, Charles Kang would be a good choice.
Blake Dunlap	10:36 A.M. Great suggestions! Any ideas for a purchasing clerk? We will need someone to start ordering merchandise right away.
Cathy Schultz	10:38 A.M. What about Carson Drake? He's been working in the same position for years and he needs a challenge.
Blake Dunlap	10:40 A.M. That is a good idea. Anyway, there are a number of other roles to fill, and I'll forward you all a list later today. Message me or drop by human resources if you have any other ideas.
