

Drag and drop the key details from "The Peanut Man" into the sequencing Flow Map.
Make sure the details are in sequential order. You can use your text to help you.

He made a plan to help put nutrients back in the soil.

George Washington Carver was known as the plant doctor when he was a child.

When he taught at Tuskegee, he used his skills to learn about how cotton takes nutrients from the

Carver was dedicated to helping poor African American farmers