Last year, I was skiing in Utah with my family. We had traveled to Utah before, but this was our first visit to this ski resort. My sister and I _____ avalanche warning signs in other areas, but there were no signs where we were that day. We _____ down the hill, and a minute later, I heard a loud sound. I _____ in a book that avalanches were loud, but this sounded like a train. A loud train! Suddenly, I saw a huge wall of snow coming down the hill after us. I shouted at my sister to ski fast and to follow me. We _____ most of the way down the hill, as fast as we could go, when the avalanche reached us. We were covered in snow and couldn't find a way to escape. Luckily, some people _____ us, and they had called a rescue crew.
