Last year I had a maths test and I hadn't studied, so I didn't want to go to school. I told my mum that my mouth was hurting. 'Mum, I've got ¹ _____. I don't think I can go to school.' She said, 'Get up and have your breakfast.' I put my hands over my ears. 'Mum, I've got really bad ² _____ too.' 'Eat your breakfast,' she said. 'You might feel better after breakfast.' But I didn't eat anything. 'My arms and legs ³ _____, Mum, and my ⁴ _____ is sore. I've got a ⁵ _____.' I held my head in my hands as I spoke. 'I think I've got ⁶ _____, Mum. I feel awful! I don't think I can go to school today.' She said, 'Hmm, OK, let's go to the doctor's.' So we went to the doctor's. He examined me and took my ⁷ _____. Then he said to my mum, 'Tom has a really high ⁸ _____. His temperature is 39 °C. Give him this medicine and make sure that he stays in bed for a week. No computers, no books and no TV. Just rest.' I didn't understand – I mean, I wasn't really ill!
