

UNIT 5. VOCABULARY

Pay special attention as you won't be allowed to do the activities again!

However, you will be able to check your answers.

1) Complete the text with the correct forms of the verbs in the list.

ask out / break up with / chat up / cheat on / dump / fall for / get back together / go out/ stand up

Do you want to hear the latest gossip? Well, you know my brother is always flirting. Anyway, a few weeks ago, he met this really beautiful girl called Natasha and he (1) her the moment he saw her in Rick's café. So, he went over to her table and started to (2) her I must admit, he's a good talker! Well, he (3) her on a date and they (4) together a couple of times. Then, guess what happened? One day he (5) her because he met his old girlfriend, Sarah, and went for a drink with her instead. Natasha saw them and accused my brother of (6) her. He tried to explain to Natasha that he had (7) Sarah and that they were just good friends, but Natasha didn't believe him and (8) him. But then last night he told me that he and Natasha had (9) It's incredible! I don't know he does it.

2) Complete the text with the correct form of an expression made from columns A and B.

A	hit	love	love	pop	tie
B	at first sight	it off	of (your) life	the knot	the question

When David saw Cristina across the disco floor, it was (1) They started talking and really (2) because they had so much in common. Finally, after a number of unsuccessful relationships, David realised he had met the (3) So, he booked a table at a romantic restaurant and (4) Cristina agreed to marry him and one month later they (5) at a civil ceremony.

3) Replace the phrases in bold with a word or phrase formed from the initial letters at the end of the sentence. For example:

Do you have a good relationship with you sister? g_ _ o_ _ get on

1- We rowed and stopped being friends, but the next day we resolved our differences and now we're friends again. f_ _ _ o_ _ / m_ _ _ u_ _

2- When I was little and older boy treated me badly but fortunately I had a good friend who always defended me. p_ _ _ _ o_ / s_ _ _ _ u_ f_ _

3- I don't like people who are friendly to me and then talk about my private life behind my back.
g_ _ _ _ _

4- I don't know her very well. She's just an a_ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _

4) Rewrite the sentences, changing the British English words to US English words.

1- Would you like to go to the cinema tonight to see a film?

2- I'm off to Miami on holiday next week.

3- The shop assistant will give you the parcel.

5- Rewrite the sentences, changing the US English words to British English words.

- 1- There are so many great stores in this mall.
- 2- Our room is on the 1st floor, so you don't need to take the elevator.

6) Complete the sentences with the phrases below. Use the correct form of the verb.

get along ■ get over ■ take people for granted ■ grow apart have got a lot in common ■ move on ■ break up ■ get to know

- 1 Thomas and Gerald used to be good friends, but recently they have .
- 2 I'm not ready for another relationship, as I haven't the last one yet.
- 3 We had met a few times before, but we each other while on holiday.
- 4 I wouldn't say we were best friends, but we nicely.
- 5 We like the same music and we have the same hobbies, so I'd say we .
- 6 You're always talking about your ex-boyfriend. Don't you think it's time to .
- 7 Have you heard the news? Sally and Harry have .
- 8 You'll never have a long-term relationship if you .

7) Complete the sentences with the correct form of a suitable word or expression. There are more words than you need.

get over ■ snob ■ flow ■ get along ■ date ■ ignore ■ get to know live through ■ relative ■ mention ■ stand still ■ envy

- 1 We used to , but now we're just good friends.
- 2 My grandfather the Second World War.
- 3 The River Thames through the centre of the city.
- 4 I people who don't have to work at the weekend.
- 5 Do you think he'll ever Anna? He was so in love with her.
- 6 We each other better when we started working together.
- 7 I with everyone in the office. That's why I love working here.
- 8 We'll be going to visit a from my father's side of the family.
- 9 People think she's a , but she's really just shy.
- 10 Did I forget to that I'm bringing a guest home?