Festivals in English Speaking Countries

1. When is it celebrated? Choose the correct option.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

2. Choose the name of the festivals.
Fill in the gaps with these words.

Guy Fawkes	Lent	Spring	pancakes	April Fool
carols	Pumkins	Jesus	gunpowder	baskets
harvest	green	postcards	leprechauns

It is celebrated the day before Ash Wednesday, when _____ begins.
During it, some people give up things like chocolate and sweets.

It is also known as Shrove Tuesday.
On this day people cook and eat _____.

This is a very fun holiday.
It is celebrated on April 1st.
On this day, people play jokes and a "victim" of these jokes is called _____.
Jokes should not harm anyone.The best jokes are the better ones, where everyone laughs.

It is a great time to spend with family and people you love.
It is areligious festival celebrated worldwide by the Christians.
It is a celebration of the commemoration of the birth of _____ Christ.
Most families put up a tree, hang decorations and sing _____.

Traditional food are candy apples, lollipops, and pumpkin pies.
Kids are dressed like witches and ghosts. They say "Trick or treat".
People usually put a candle inside big _____ to make them scary.
This festival is celebrated on October 31st.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

It's a time for being with family and friends.
It is celebrated on the 4th Thursday of November to thank God for the _____.

Traditional foods are turkey, sweet potatoes, pumpkin pie, fruits and vegetables.

This festival is the national holiday of Ireland.
It is celebrated on the 17th March.
People usually wear _____clothes.

The traditional symbols are shamrocks, harps and_____.

It marks the beginning of_____.
We celebrated it in March or April.
This is a religious holiday in honour of Jesus Christ.
The traditional symbols are eggs, _____, chocolate bunnies...

The most popular colours are pink and red.
You can show your family and friends how much you love them.
It is a tradition to give or send presents, flowers, sweets and _____ to people you love.
It is celebrated on the 14th of February.

This festival is also called Guy Fawkes night is a festival from the UK.

In 1605, a man called _____ and his friends tried to blow up the English Parliament building with _____.

It is celebrated on November the 5th.
On this day people light bonfires and let off fireworks.
They eat baked potatoes, hot dogs and bonfire toffee.

LIVEWORKSHEETS