

THE HOUND OF THE BASKERVILLES

CHAPTER 8: THE STAPLETONS OF PEN HOUSE

Despite _____ strange encounter, Stapleton invites Dr. Watson _____ their house, explaining _____ isolated living situation _____ hoping Sir Henry will become _____ neighbour.

Stapleton warns _____ the dangers _____ the Great Grimpen Marsh, where people _____ animals _____ sink _____ die.

_____ they encounter Miss Stapleton, she urgently advises Dr. Watson _____ leave moor immediately _____ his safety.

She refuses _____ explain further _____ asks him _____ keep her warning _____ her brother.

Dr. Watson presses her _____ the Hound of _____ Baskervilles legend, _____ she refuses _____ divulge more, citing her brother's desires _____ Sir Henry _____ remain _____ Baskerville Hall.

However, Miss Stapleton, realizing _____ mistake _____ assuming Dr. Watson was Sir Henry, apologizes _____ insists _____ leaving.

_____ these unsettling encounters, Dr. Watson continues _____ journey back _____ Baskerville Hall, pondering _____ mysterious circumstances surrounding _____ Stapleton siblings.

He mentions his ability _____ navigate _____ marsh safely _____ find rare plants _____ butterflies. _____ discussing the eerie cry heard across _____ moor, Stapleton attributes it _____ natural causes, _____ Dr. Watson remains skeptical.