WOF/ The Dragonet Prophecy: Chapter 5

Answer:

1-5	16-20
6-10	21-25
11-15	26-30

1. Why does Clay think that Starflight is going to read 'Tales of the NightWings'?
A. Because it is assigned reading.
B. Because Starflight always reads it when he's upset or fighting with another dragonet.
C. Because it's a precautionary measure to gain more knowledge.
D. Because Morrowseer recommended it.

2. What does Morrowseer imply about the RainWing, Glory?
A. That she is the next dragon to get powers.
B. That she will be set free very soon.
C. That Morrowseer has plans to deal with her in some way.
D. That she should be the leader of the dragonets.

3. What is suggested as the reason for Starflight's silence when Clay asks if Morrowseer could tell how smart he is by reading his mind?
A. Because Starflight is too modest to agree.
B. Because Clay's question was rhetorical.
C. Because Starflight has lost his voice.
D. Because he did not have his mind read by Morrowseer.

4. Why is Tsunami chained?
A. Because she attempted to escape.
B. To prevent her from running to her family.
C. As a punishment with the hope of teaching her gratitude.
D. Because it's customary for the dragonets.

5. What do Kestrel's words to Tsunami reveal about her perspective on the dragonets and the prophecy?
A. She believes that Tsunami's family is eagerly awaiting her return.
B. She thinks that Tsunami's dreams of her family caring for her are based on reality.
C. She dismisses Tsunami's expectations about her family and emphasizes the utility of the dragonets to the Talons of Peace.
D. She reveals that she's been secretly caring for Tsunami's well-being.

6. What emotion does Clay feel upon witnessing Tsunami's predicament?
A. Excitement at the thought of a change.
B. Curiosity about the guardians' intentions.
C. A cold sense of urgency to free her immediately.
D. Horror and an immediate drive to act.

7. Which dragonet does Morrowseer indicate should be followed by the others?
A. Sunny
B. Glory
C. Tsunami
D. Starflight

8. Why does Clay express concern that Morrowseer will detect them if they attempt to spy on the guardians?
A. Because Morrowseer has sight that penetrates stone.
B. Because he is confident he can outsmart Morrowseer.
C. Because Morrowseer is reputed to have the ability to read minds.
D. Because he believes Morrowseer has power over all the elements.

9. What does Clay's failed attempt to release Tsunami from the chain show about his character?
A. He has a disregard for his own safety.
B. He lacks physical strength.
C. He is quick to act without thinking.
D. He is unafraid of burns.

10. What does Starflight's behavior with the scroll indicate?
A. His increased interest in reading.
B. His meticulous care for his possessions.
C. His anxiety and lack of attention to what he's doing.
D. His intention to destroy the scroll.

11. What is the implication of Morrowseer's visit for Glory?
A. It could result in her promotion within the dragons' hierarchy.
B. It signifies her immediate release from the group.
C. It may involve some action by Morrowseer that could be negative for Glory.
D. It ensures her participation in critical decision-making.

12. How is Starflight's intelligence referred to in the conversation with Clay?
A. As a hindrance to his progress.
B. As unparalleled among the dragonets of destiny.
C. As inferior compared to Morrowseer's wisdom.
D. As average and not noteworthy.

13. According to the text, why does Starflight not disclose the full extent of his conversation with Morrowseer to Clay?
A. Because he is waiting for the right moment.
B. Because he is forgetful and doesn't remember the details.
C. Because he is not supposed to talk about it.
D. Because he does not trust Clay.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

14. What does Starflight's reaction to Morrowseer's compliment imply?
A. He is filled with joy and pride.
B. He fully believes Morrowseer's praise.
C. He is doubtful or possibly knows the praise is not genuine.
D. He is eager to share the praise with the other dragonets.

15. What is Clay's emotional state as noted during his and Starflight's observation of the events unfolding in the main hall?
A. Confusion and eagerness to play a game.
B. Contentment and detachment from the situation.
C. Anger and determination to seek revenge.
D. Anxiety and insistence on taking immediate action.

16. Why did Tsunami stop singing and lay down quietly?
A. Because she realized it was late at night
B. Kestrel threatened to chain up one of her friends
C. She got tired of singing
D. Webs asked her to stop singing

17. What is the main reason Kestrel decided to act against Glory?
A. Because she sympathizes with Glory
B. Glory was not a real SkyWing
C. Morrowseer asked for Glory's presence
D. Webs believed that they needed five dragonets

18. Why did Clay dread entering the cold water?
A. He was going to take a bath
B. He feared being caught by Kestrel
C. Spying on the guardians was now important
D. Tsunami asked him to swim for leisure

19. What did the guardians plan to do with Glory without Webs?
A. Teach her a new skill
B. Take her on a trip
C. Drown her as suggested by Dune
D. Let her join the Talons of Peace

20. How was Tsunami feeling as she was forced to remain quiet?
A. Excited about the upcoming events
B. Grateful for the guardians' guidance
C. Mutinous and furious
D. Indifferent to the situation

21. What does Kestrel use to emphasize her feelings toward Glory?
A. An affectionate gesture
B. A ball of flames
C. A promise to protect her
D. An apology for her actions

22. Why did Webs express reluctance to follow the plan against Glory?
A. He was fond of Glory
B. He wanted to train Glory for a mission
C. His ideological stance against killing dragons
D. He was too tired to participate

23. What might deter Kestrel from going through with the plan against Glory?
A. Her compassion for young dragons
B. A similarity with a previous event
C. Webs' objection to the plan
D. The fact that Glory might overpower her

24. What indicates that Clay's attempt to swim away discreetly might fail?
A. The guardians were expecting him
B. Horror-induced shudders were causing noticeable waves
C. He was a poor swimmer
D. The cave was too dark to navigate

25. How does Kestrel suggest dealing with Tsunami's potential interference?
A. By reasoning with her
B. By offering her a deal
C. With brute force
D. By ensuring Tsunami is chained up and under control

26. What made Dune express doubt about Clay's natural instincts?
A. His lack of combat skills
B. His excessive loyalty
C. His fear of stalactites
D. His inability to follow orders

27. Why did Kestrel believe she had to be the one to carry out the act against Glory?
A. Because she was the bravest
B. She was the only one who could be sneaky about it
C. Others wouldn't be able to contain Glory if she tried to escape
D. Because she was the leader

28. Which dragonet is implied to have the ability to confront Kestrel?
A. Webs
B. Tsunami
C. Clay
D. Dune

29. Why did Sunny try to stop Dune from leaving?
A. To play with him
B. To make him apologize
C. To change his mind about Tsunami's treatment
D. To get advice from him

30. What indicates that Clay was experiencing significant stress during his underwater spying?
A. His longing to return to the surface
B. His struggle with the current in the river
C. His heart hammering in his chest
D. The brightness of his scales underwater

LIVEWORKSHEETS