

A. Have you ever noticed that some words in Spanish relate to each other and have similar meaning?

cerrar (to close)	cerrado (closed)
-------------------	------------------

Can you guess the English translation of these adjectives below? Select the correct translation from the choices below.

beloved, loved enamored of, in love with lost dressed transformed

1. querido _____
2. vestido _____
3. enamorado _____
4. perdido _____
5. transformado _____

B. In order to make a past participle, you will have to drop the -AR, -ER, or -IR and replace with -ado or -ido.

Create participles from the following verbs.

1. casar _____
2. pelear _____
3. recomendar _____
4. afeitarse _____
5. bañar _____
6. recibir _____

C. When past participles are used as adjectives, they have to change in number and gender to agree with the noun. Create and change the following participles to agree.

1. La tienda _____ (abrir)
2. Los jóvenes _____ (enamorar)
3. La princesa _____ (casar)
4. La comida _____ (compartir)
5. El palacio _____ (decorar)

D. Complete the sentences below using the participle of one of the verbs below. Remember to check for agreement. You may use a word more than once.

vestir respetar querer decorar llamar

1. El emperador _____ tenía una hija
2. La princesa _____ vivía en el palacio.
3. El palacio _____ estaba en el centro de la ciudad.
4. El héroe popular _____ Popocatépetl pasaba por enfrente del palacio.
5. Un día, la princesa bien _____ en un vestido bonito vio a Popocatépetl.
6. Los jóvenes _____ se enamoraron inmediatamente.