

Warm Up

Understanding the speaker's feelings

To understand how a speaker feels, pay attention to:

- what he / she says, e.g.

Are you OK? You don't look well.

worried

- how he / she speaks: Does the voice go up or down? Does he / she speak loudly, slowly, etc? Does he / she add extra stress to some words?

The film is very long.

bored

Are we going to the zoo?

excited

Stop talking!

angry

Really?

surprised

Oh no!

unhappy

Listen and circle the correct picture.

1 How does Sam feel?

2 How does Dad feel?

3 How does Peter feel?

4 How does Ted feel?

Practice 1

Mrs Wong is booking a table for dinner on Grandpa's birthday.

Part A Listen to the conversation between Mrs Wong and the waiter. Write the correct answers.

Green Garden

Table-booking form

- 1 Name of customer: _____ Wong
- 2 Contact number: _____
- 3 Date of reservation: _____ / _____
- 4 Time: _____ : _____
- 5 Number of people: _____
- 6 Special request: _____ cheesecake

Part B Listen to parts of the conversation again. Each part will be played once only. Choose the best answer by blackening ● the circle.

1 Why does Mrs Wong agree to sit outside?

- ☐ A. The view from the VIP room is not good.
- ☐ B. She can see beautiful flowers in the garden.
- ☐ C. It is cool outside.
- ☐ D. It is cold inside.

You will hear some of the options but only one of them is the answer.

2 How does Mrs Wong feel at the end of the conversation?

☐ A.

☐ B.

☐ C.

☐ D.