Do you care about animals and their habitats? Then, this is your chance to help! Read this article and find out about it!

Beach Park is a nice park by the sea. It has a long white-sand beach and a beautiful forest. During the summer months, tourists visit the park, enjoy its beach and have picnics in its forest. The bad thing is that they leave a lot of rubbish there. Plants and animals are losing their habitats. You can see very few butterflies in summer. So, volunteers spend the winter cleaning the area. 'It's hard work but it's fun and you can make new friends,' a 16-year-old volunteer says. You don't need to have any previous experience. You just need to be ready to help! The park's staff provides all the tools and training for each kind of work. They also serve tea, coffee and biscuits but you have to take a packed lunch. You need jeans and boots. Comfortable clothes are important for this type of work.

If you want to do something different this winter, please contact the park on 0789429855326.
