As adults, all sisters got married young. They all had husbands with no brains or jobs. Lisa to college. She became a rich scientist traveled the world. She was the one now.

Sea World is one of the famous parks in the world. Thousands of visit each year. Most of them go see the dolphins and whales perform tricks. is something they could never see in wild.

Sea World has been under a of pressure lately. Thousands of people have protesting the parks. These people say that and whales should not be forced to in such small spaces. They should also be forced to perform pointless tricks. Most are starting to agree with this. Sea will hopefully start listening to the protestors .
