Contrast and Similarity

Fill the space with a word from the box. Pay attention to punctuation!

Both However However Like Neither Similarly Similarly Unlike Whereas while	1. In many Middle Eastern countries, it is considered polite to remove your shoes when entering someone's home. _____, taking shoes off is also common in many Asian cultures. 2. _____ in Japan it is customary to bow as a form of greeting, a handshake is common in many Western cultures. 3. _____ Eastern and Western cultures value punctuality. _____, the acceptable time range for being on time may vary. 4. In Scandinavian countries, personal space is highly valued, _____ in other more crowded regions, people are often more comfortable often being close to one another. 5. _____ burping nor blowing your nose at the dinner table is considered polite in most cultures around the world. 6. Australian waiters, _____ Canadian ones, appreciate getting tips. 7. In South Korea, it's polite to use both hands when giving or receiving something. _____, in Thailand, it's customary to use both hands when offering or receiving objects. 8. In Germany, it's polite to arrive on time when visiting others. _____, it's considered rude to arrive too early, as it may inconvenience the host. 9. In Japan, _____ many western countries, slurping noodles loudly is acceptable, and is seen as a sign of enjoyment.

LIVEWORKSHEETS