|--------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Speaker 0... | a) ... likes having the chance to discover different cultures but thinks globalisation can make you feel at home when you're abroad. |
| Speaker 1... | b) ... wishes they could live in a country without advertisements of global brands.                                                  |
| Speaker 2... | c) ... thinks the best part of globalisation is that people become more tolerant because they learn from one another.                |
| Speaker 3... | d) ... thinks globalisation allows people to enjoy the same things but only promotes the wealthiest.                                 |
| Speaker 4... | e) ... reckons that globalisation is good for them but likes places that haven't been affected by it.                                |
| Speaker 5... | f) ... names a place where globalisation has helped to make people more tolerant.                                                    |
| Speaker 6... | g) ... doesn't like the negative effects globalisation has had in their country.                                                     |
