

UNIT 4 – RELATIVE PRONOUNS

WHO (PEOPLE)	WHERE (PLACES)	WHICH (THINGS/ANIMALS)	WHOSE (POSSESSION)
------------------------	--------------------------	----------------------------------	------------------------------

1. Fill in with who, where, which or whose.

This is the boy _____ had an accident.

Yesterday I saw a car _____ was really old.

Mandy is the girl _____ I met at the party.

I decorated the cake _____ my mum had prepared.

Can I talk to the girl _____ is sitting on the bench?

I know a friend _____ brother works for the president.

The school is the place _____ children learn new things.

Where is the bottle of water _____ I bought this morning?

This is the hotel _____ I stay when I go to Paris.

Mr. Jones, _____ is a taxi driver, lives next to the train station.

The shopping centre is a place _____ you can buy a lot of things.

The children _____ names are on the list will stay in the classroom.

2. Write one sentence using who, where, which or whose.

Example: Here are the apples. I picked them this morning.

Here are the apples which I picked this morning.

1. My father lives near the sea. He loves sailing.

My father, _____ lives near the sea, loves sailing.

2. The girl is a great singer. Her boyfriend is an actor.

The girl, _____ boyfriend is and actor, is a great singer.

3. This is the theatre. I go to the theatre every Friday.

This is the theatre _____ I go every Friday.

4. George is a friend of mine. He works in a restaurant.

George, _____ works in a restaurant, is a friend of mine.

5. Hamlet is a novel. It is very famous.

Hamlet is a novel _____ is very famous.

6. Hamburg is a German city. Hamburgers were invented there.

Hamburg is a German city _____ hamburgers were invented.

7. Give me the pen. You bought the pen yesterday.

Give me the pen _____ you bought yesterday.

8. La Ciutadella is a park. I go to that park to walk the dog.

La Ciutadella is the park _____ I go to walk the dog.

