Grace and Frankie S 2 Ep 9

Read the conversations out loud . Put in out or In.

- I need a flush before everyone gets here.
- It's your family, Frankie. What's the problem?
- Coyote's got news. When has that ever turned well?
- Well, on the bright side, if it's bad news, it'll take the sting of the lube disaster.

- OK. Here's what I think: You get married, the vows say, « sickness and health."

- We're all different living situations and... Dad, how's your new place?
- It's nice. It's fine. A little somber. I try not to be there, I get depressed.

- She wants to meet me.
- OK. OK. We can process this as a family. We'll take some time, maybe a few weeks or months. We'll have a therapist come .
- She's actually flying tomorrow.
- OK. We can accelerate our process. We are flexible people.

- Oh, Robert, I'd love to feel sorry for you, but that job's been taken by you. Now, snap of it. There's a whole world there. And the doctor said you need more exercise.
- How do you know what my doctor said?
- Is there a doctor that suggests less exercise?

- Bagels are toasted. Is there a reason we don't have knives ?
- Yes.
- Ah.
- Is this appropriate food?

- Well, the good news is you found your neti pot.
- Where?
- You're serving nuts it.

- You're gonna be fine.
- Of course I will. I've got the goddess of love and openness on my side.
- Yeah, well if you need the goddess of numbness and Xanax, I have some my purse.

- How long have y'all been married?
- We, uh... We've been married, uh, the whole time with Coyote. That part was married. Uh, the Bud part, too.
- Yep.
- Ah, yes.
- And now I'm, as it turns , a homosexual. And I'm married to another homosexual.
- A good Christian homosexual.
- Well, Catholic. Unfortunately, we're separated right now, mostly because I sinned. Heterosexually.
- Uh-huh. I see.

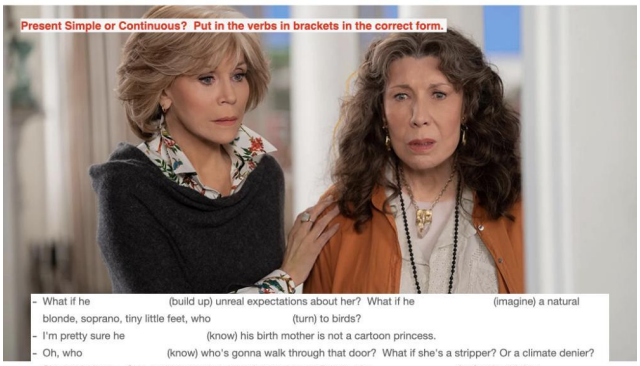

- What made you step of the closet after all these years, Robert?
- I fell love.
- Now, that's a great reason. Good for you. Maybe we're the lucky ones.
- How's that?
- When you come young these days, it's difficult to avoid the near occasion of sin.

Coming out refers to the process that people who are LGBTQ go through as they work to accept their sexual orientation or gender identity and share that identity openly with other people LGBT people who have already revealed or no longer conceal their sexual orientation or gender identity are out of the closet or simply out, i.e., openly LGBT. By contrast, LGBT people who have yet to come out or have opted not to do so are labelled as closeted or being in the closet.

- Where does your family think you are?
- New York. Seeing Kinky Boots.
- So we can welcome you to our family but you can't welcome him to yours?

- Battery is brand new. Are the keys it?
- Yes.
- Ah.
- I find that it starts better when it's park.
