

Personality

1. Sarah is a ____ friend because she always ____ me with my homework.
2. Being a ____ means spoiling the fun for everyone, and nobody ____ (like) that.
3. It's not ____ if Tim gets more candies than the others; we should share equally.
4. It's so ____ to try and touch a hot stove without oven mitts – you might get burned!
5. Lucy is ____ and (love) to talk about her adventures at school every day.
6. Jake is ____ and prefers to stay out of discussions.
7. Emily is so ____ in class; she rarely speaks unless the teacher calls on her.
8. It's ____ to make fun of others just because they're different from you.
9. Alex is ____ and always makes new friends easily at school.
10. Mariia feels ____ before a test, but she always (do) her best to prepare.
11. It's ____ to leave your toys scattered around; pick them up!
12. The family was excited to ____ after being apart for a long vacation.
13. Playing video games can ____ teamwork, where everyone (work) together to win.
14. Good ____ in the classroom means listening to the teacher and being respectful.
15. Jenny is ____ when she presents her project in front of the class. It's definitely her cup of tea!
16. Mark is ____ and rarely smiles or talks to others.
17. Being unkind by teasing others ____ (to be) not acceptable; we should always be kind.

18. Samantha is ____ and loves to share stories with her friends.
19. Sarah is ____; she always completes her assignments on time.
20. It's important to be polite and greet others with a ____ smile to create a positive atmosphere.